SEPTEMBER , 2001

HENSLEY TO REJOIN HEEP FOR THE MAGICIAN'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

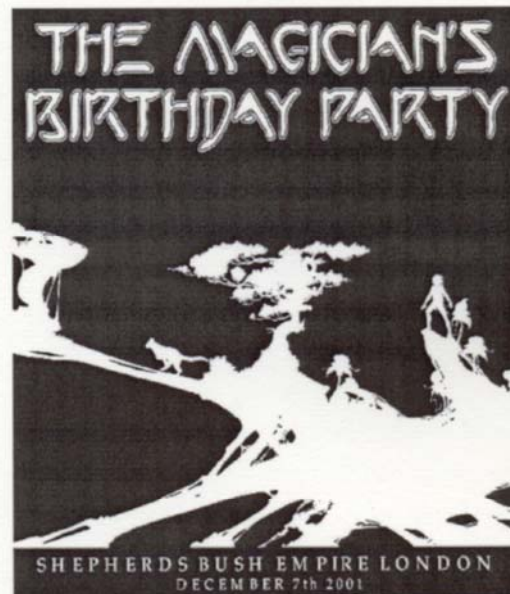

Friday December 7th, 2001

The Sheperds Bush Empire / London, England

Contributed from: www.uriah-heep.com

Following on from the hugely successful Acoustically Driven shows the Magician's Birthday will be a unique event with lots of surprises, special guests and a show stopping finale that will have Heep fans talking for years to come. Obviously we can't tell you what it is, but you are unlikely to guess it either!

As with last year's event the film cameras will again be there to record this great occasion for posterity and an official bootleg produced by Pip Williams will again be made available for the fans.

Immediately after the show we present the official "Uriah Heep Christmas Party" !

This is your opportunity to let your hair down with the band and other Heep fans from around the world. Subscribers have priority access for tickets to both events long before they go on sale to the general public. The cost of subscribing for the CD/DVDset is just £29./$45/89DM. Concert tickets are available to subscribers at £13.50/20/40DM. Christmas Party tickets are £10/$15/32DM. For further information on adding your name to the list of subscribers, visit www.uriah-heep.com or contact Classic Rock Legends at 44 1789 294472.

When Ken Hensley left Uriah Heep camp over 20 years ago, after a gig in Portugal, it seemed that a page had turned forever. So abrupt was his final decision, there was no opportunity for Ken to say a musical thankyou to the Heep faithful. So when Mick Box invited Ken to join Heep on stage as special guest for The Magician's Birthday Party 2001, Ken felt that the time was ripe to say a belated salute to the fans.

"Due to circumstances at the time, I never had the chance to say farewell from the stage. This is a great opportunity to thank the fans in a very positive way" - KEN HENSLEY

CITY SPRING - THE ORIGINAL PAINTING • ©2001 ROGER DEAN

A New Uriah Heep Studio Album!

Uriah Heep has earmarked 'City Spring' as the cover image for the next project. This full-scale painting is instantly recognisable as a Roger Dean landscape. This, and more, are available now at www.roger-dean.com!

It is worth mentioning that you can own this original painting for only $60,000.00.

Current plans put Heep back in the studio the first part of the new year. After time to write, record, and mix the material, a new release should be ready in spring and another US tour is promised soon afterwards. The last studio album, Sonic Origami, was released in 1998.

A Few Words From The Band

At a time when the recent outrages are uppermost in all of our minds, a number of people have asked whether Uriah Heep will be canceling concerts.

After much deliberation, the answer is no.

In keeping with many artists, Uriah Heep will continue to play and tour.

To give in would be to give the terrorists the victory they seek.

As musicians all we can do is to bring some joy to a troubled world and we shall continue to do that for as long as it remains in our gift to do so.

We hope we can rely on your support.

Uriah Heep

Our thoughts and prayers are with them all...

Heepsters Mailing List Rarities Collection Series

Contributed by Mac Steagall

Some of you might not be familiar with two series of Uriah Heep CD-Rs being made and distributed by Heepsters. The Heepsters Mailing List Rarities Series is a collection of rare tracks and each volume usually has a theme. These are definitely worth getting and the artwork, by Tapio Minkinen, is excellent.

HMLR Volume II
2CD Set of Lawton era rarities including the Five Mile Acetates.

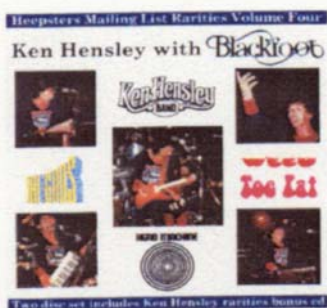

HMLR Volume IV
2CD set of Ken Hensley non-Heep rarities.

HMLR Volume I
Miscellaneous rarities from the Byron era, Goalby era and the current lineup.

HMLR Volume III
David Byron - The Lost Songs.
Non-Heep rarities.

HMLR Volume V
2CD set of Live Heep with Peter Goalby, John Sloman & Steff Fontaine.

The Uriah Heep Live Archives Series

Along the same lines as the HMLR series, now we present the Uriah Heep Live Archives. This series of rare live recordings are a must for the serious Heep fan. Artwork is by Jay Pearson, and remastering is from Bryan Young. Speed correction on the Montreal recording by Barry Lombardo.

UHLA Volume I
Rough Diamond
Live In the USA
recorded June, 1977.

UHLA Volume II
Uriah Heep live with Steff Fontaine 1986 record in Charlotte and Montreal.

UHLA Volume III
Uriah Heep recorded Live In Berlin on December 19, 1970.

THE PITTSBURGH, PA MINI-HEEPVENTION WAS WELL ATTENDED BY CAROLINA HEEPSTERS AND FRIENDS

Summer of 2001 Filled With Memories of Mini-Heepventions

Due to the summer Uriah Heep tour of the US, the annual Heepvention that was scheduled for San Diego, CA was called off in lue of multiple such mini-ventions during, before and after concerts. Reports came in from all over the country of Heepsters travelling together to shows, of celebrated birthdays, hanging out together to socialize with each other and the with the band at times.

Next year a new tour is promised, many such events that happened this past summer may have the chance to repeat. Life gives us little guarantees, so the effort to plan a full scale Heepvention should be made. It will not over shadow any other event, because when Heepsters meet, small scale or large, it's always a special memory. Our lives are so much different in many cases, yet a certain bond brings us together. In that one respect you could say we all alike.

A Special Message to the Carolina Heepsters Association and it's Members

Hello,

I hope that this reaches you in time for your meeting.....!! Thank you so very much for your continued support of the band. It really does mean a lot to us. I hope that we have now laid a strong enough foundation in the USA and Canada so that we can tour there each and every year. It is our goal to record a new CD next year and come back and do a nice size tour. We are presently networking all the right people to make this possible.

Our hearts go out to all that were lost and their families in the awful events that happened in New York 2 weeks ago. The shockwaves reverberated around the world. We can only pray that peace will eventually find it's way back into our hearts and our life again to wash away the pain.

It was good to meet you all, talk with you all and in some cases share a beer with you all. Until the next time Keep on Heepin' On !!

Mick Box.
